Office workers scoop £2.6m win on Lottery

A GROUP of office workers are getting used to sipping champagne despite the credit crunch after scooping a bumper £2.6 million Lottery win.

The 23 members of the syndicate who all work for Havebury Housing Partnership at its offices in Manor Road, Haverhill, attended a press conference to celeBY Jo Deeks brate their windfall of £114,000 each yesterday.

The syndicate known as "Suffolk Lads and Lasses" was only formed in January – playing online with each paying £1 a week – and it was the numbers chosen by cleaner Jill Brown, 57, which hit the jackpot.

Lucy Czilinsky, 39, the syndicate leader, said normally their numbers were checked on a Saturday, but this week she only found out about the win by email

when she arrived at work on Monday

Lucy said: "I just stared at my screen in disbelief. I did not believe what I was looking at and then I was screaming and shouting and jumping up and down. I have already spent my money a hundred times in my head, but it has not really sunk in yet completely.

"I think most will pay off their mortgages, buy a new car or have a holiday. Some of us went out for a meal that night and it was nice to order a bottle without worrying about what it cost."

worrying about what it cost."
Jill said she loved her cleaning job and would be staying, like the rest of the winners. She had no regrets about choosing the winning numbers for the syndicate, rather than winning on her own.

She said: "I don't regret it one bit. It is nice that everyone gets a bit of it, not just the 23 people but their families as well. I think it is lovely. I had already bought all my Christmas presents before I won, but I will be buying some more now."

more now."

Polly Shipp, who has worked for Havebury and previously St Edmundsbury Borough Council's housing department for almost 30 years, said: "They are a wonderful group of people to work with and we all get along really well.

"You don't really believe it until you see the money in the bank. I have two sons and three grandchildren, so I am going to really enjoy it with them."

Rob Squirrell, 34, one of the few men in the syndicate, said he had a great group of colleagues, especially Jill. He said: "We all love her, especially now she has picked the winning numbers!"

Church gets behind hospice campaign

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklvnews.co.uk

MONEY continues to pour into our Haverhill Weekly News St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal pushing it towards the £30,000

Since we launched the appeal in February to raise £40,000 for the hospice to provide services for patients in the Haverhill area in their own homes, cash donations and fund-raising events have come flooding in from all quarters

This week a church got behind the campaign by handing over £300 from its harvest appeal and promising more from a series of Christmas events.

West End Congregational Church, in Withersfield Road, Haverhill, has also handed over £250 to the Haverhill Schools Initiative. The church has a busy programme of events planned for the Christmas period, including a concert by the Amici Singers on November 30, see Page 4, and the town's first Christmas Tree Festival from December 4-9.

It will be raising more cash for its three chosen charities, the St Nicholas Hospice at Home Appeal, the Children's Society and the Haverhill Food Bank.

Other churches, schools and organisations are being encouraged to sponsor a tree for the festival and decorate it themselves. For more information, contact the Rev Leslie Shorten on (01440)

The Rev Shorten said: "We felt the appeal was something that we wanted to support. So many people in the community benefit from the work of the hospice and the Hospice at Home Appeal will help reach even more."

Meanwhile, the launch of our

Hospice at Home calendar got off to a good start when the first copies were sold at the St Nicholas Christmas Fayre held at the Methodist Church in Camps Road on Saturday

The event was very well supported, with 14 copies of the calendar sold and between £400 and £500 thought to have been raised for the appeal from the fayre.

Ian Norris, fundraiser for the hospice said: "It was very well attended and several people came especially for the calendars. It was a really nice, friendly social occasion and we were treated splendidly by the Methodist Church and the Next Door café, who donated 20p from every bacon

The calendar, which costs £6.95, contains stunning local scenes captured by photographer George Impey and has been sponsored by local companies so that every penny goes into the Hospice at Home Appeal. It can be bought at the hospice shop in Haverhill High Street, Suffolk Insurance, the Weekly News office in Queen Street, Specialized Print in Station Road and a number of other venues in the town.

Anyone who would like to sell some copies can contact Ian Norris on (01284) 747613.

■ The Mount Pleasant Club in Withersfield Road, Haverhill, is holding a table top sale on Sunday, December 7, in aid of the appeal. The event will run from 10am until noon, with tables £6 each with that money going straight to the charity

The club committee will be running its own table with all funds raised going to the charity.

Anyone who wants to run a table can call Julie on (01440) 708673 or the Mount Pleasant Club on 703422.

Councillors disqualified

TWO members of Haverhill Town Council have been disqualified after failing to attend any meetings for six months. Former town mayor Cllr Ann Thomas and Cllr Jack Anderson were officially disqualified at a council meeting on Tuesday, Town clerk Gordon Mussett said as the councillors represented different wards there would have to be two separate elections at a cost of around £7,000 if an election was called for. If no-one calls for an election for either seat by the deadline today, then councillors would be coopted, one nominated by each of the political parties

Jail for builder's brutal attackers

TWO men have been jailed for launching a vicious attack which left a builder fighting for his life.

Ryan Griffin, 23, who stamped on the head of his victim – self-employed builder Paul Fitch – was sentenced to four years and three months while Daniel Batt, 27, who had struck the first blow, was jailed for 21

On Friday, Ipswich Crown Court was told how Mr Fitch had been standing with a group of friends at a kebab stall in High Street, Haverhill, on the evening last July when Batt had begun arguing with him.

Prosecutor Richard Potts said that without warning Batt, of Chimney Street, Hundon, had punched Mr Fitch in the face, sending him unconscious to the ground.

It was then that Griffin, of Barton Grove, Kedington, had joined in, stamping on Mr Fitch's head while he was "out for the count" and defenceless, said Mr Potts.

Addenbrooke's

Hospital, Cambridge a CT scan revealed that Mr Fitch had suffered a fracture to his skull and a large blood clot had formed on the surface of his brain.

As a result he underwent a five-hour operation to remove the clot, received 30 staples in his scalp, and spent four days in hospital.

Because of the attack Mr Fitch estimated he had lost £15,000 worth of work and was still unable to lift heavy weights because of dizziness and had experienced problems with had his hearing.

Griffin had initially denied a charge of assault occasioning grievous bodily harm but later changed his plea to guilty.

Batt maintained his innocence and stood trial in October but was convicted by a jury on a charge of assault causing grievous bodily harm.

David Pickersgill, mitigating, said: "It is very clear that six months down the line since his remand he is extremely ashamed and sorry of his role in this

"He says he has no memory of the events and does not know where this came from. He has never done anything like this

Griffin had consumed a large quantity of alcohol and had also taken cocaine.

Batt, who had also been drinking, accepted that he had been the first to use violence that evening, said Matthew McNiff, mitigating.

But the incident had been out of character, said Mr McNiff. He said: "He is ordinarily a hard-working man who will reason and discuss and not hit out and abuse.

Batt had now signif-icantly reduced his alcohol

Judge John Holt told them that without emergency surgery to remove the blood clot from Mr Fitch's brain, the results of the attack could have proved fatal.

He said there was an underlying theme of violence linked to alcohol in both of Batt and Griffin's cases and that the attack on Mr Fitch had been entirely

'Nightmare goes on' for death crash family

BY Jo Deeks

Fmail: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THE family of a grandfather killed in a crash with a drug-driver face more heartbreak in a legal battle over his home, money and possessions in Bulgaria.

Don McCallum, aged 75, was on his way to visit his family in Haverhill for Christmas last December and meet his 11-week-old great-grandaughter for the first time, when he was hit by a car driven by Helen Nunn of Ditton Fields, Cambridge, who admitted taking amphetamines before getting behind the wheel.

She was convicted of causing his death by careless driving last week and will be sentenced next month.

Mr McCallum's son, also called Don, of Aragon Road, said although Nunn's conviction had brought some closure to the family, they were angered that she had pleaded not guilty.

He said: "We had a six-day trial and I was pleased with the outcome, but the woman showed no remorse, none. She admitted taking drugs, but did not think it would have affected her driving."

vomiting bug

A WARD at West Suffolk Hospital has been shut to new admissions after several patients became ill with norovirus.

Eight patients on ward G4 with symptoms of the highly contagious diarrhoea and vomiting virus, have been isolated to stop the illness from spreading, while visitors with symptoms of the virus have been urged to stav away.

Norovirus, also known as the winter vomiting virus, causes sickness for only one to two days, but is still contagious for some time afterwards.

Dr Caroline Barker, the hospital's infection control expert, said: "Every year there are cases in the community which transfer to the hospital.

"Because the virus has an incubation period of several days, people are often unaware that they are carrying it until after they have passed it on.

"We are managing the current cases using our stringent infection control policies. Our cleaning staff have also been working hard to make sure enhanced cleaning takes place on the affected ward.

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

'We would advise anyone who has had diarrhoea or the hospital for at least 72 hours after they have recovered, even if they feel better. Otherwise they run the risk of unknowingly passing the highly contagious illness on to someone who is already sick."

Dr Barker added: "Anyone who visits the hospital should be vigilant and take care to clean their hands.

"If they are visiting the affected ward, they should use soap and water when they arrive and before they leave as alcohol gel is not effective.

People suffering from norovirus are advised to stay at home, drink plenty of water and take paracetamol tablets to relieve a temperature.

Those who are very young, very old or frail or are having problems with dehydration may need to attend hospital.

Council's silver for going green

A SUFFOLK council has won a top environmental award which puts it on a par with giant corporations like Ford and Speedy Hire plc.

St Edmunds-bury Borough bury Borough Council earned praise for its green credentials with a coveted silver in the East of England Environment Index, by the East of England Development Agency, after beating all other public sector bodies which entered. To win the rating, the council assessed its actions to tackle climate change and cut carbon dioxide emissions.

It also included details of its recycling and waste management, drives to save water and boost staff's environmental awareness.

Judges gave its self-assessment an 80 per cent rating, compared to the average of 68 per Cllr Stevens, portfolio holder for environment and street scene, said: "We are delighted that the efforts we make at St Ed-mundsbury to protect our environment have been recognised.

"Keeping both our own borough clean and green and minimising impact we have on the wider environment have long been a priority for us."

Youths linked to two attempted break-ins

POLICE are linking a foiled burglary in Haverhill to a successful raid in the town the previous day.

The occupant disturbed two men who broke a window trying to get into a house at Beaumont Close between 3.10pm and 3.20pm on Thursday, November 13. They fled towards the industrial estate.

The first is described as white, in his late teens, about 5 ft 9in tall, with a thin face and stubble.

The second was white, in his late teens, shorter than the first, with dark hair and a dark coloured hooded jacket.

At 4.20pm the day before two men broke into a house, in the town's Helions Park Grove, and stole a silver bowl.

They were challenged by a neighbour and claimed to be looking for a relative.

The first is said to be white, in his late teens or early 20s, with short hair and a grey or blue hooded top. The second was white, similarly aged, but shorter than the first male with light blue eyes.

FAMILIES have been delving into what goes on inside the human body as part of a school project. In a new venture parents of children in Year 3 and 4 were asked to get involved in the Healthy Me project at Haverhill's New Cangle Primary school and help with their child's homework to make a "Lift the Flap Body' showing what is inside our bodies. Lyn Beale,

Minister backs trust status bid

WEST Suffolk Hospital has taken another step towards its bid for Foundation status after winning the support of the Secretary of State for health.

Alan Johnson's backing means the independent reg ulator of Foundation Trusts can take a final decision on the trust's application from February onwards.

Foundation status supporters believe that gaining the special status will give the hospital more financial freedom to develop new services, and offer local people a greater say in its running.

Chris Bown, trust chief executive, said the minister's backing was "another important step" and added: "We have sound financial and organisational management plans in place which put us in a strong position.

"We have also had a huge response from the public in our bid to attract members, which shows the enormous interest which people in west Suffolk show in the trust and the support they have for the work we do."

More than 4,000 people have expressed an interest in becoming a trust member, and the hospital is holding a series of meetings for those keen to play a bigger role as govenors.

Over the next few weeks, meetings will be held in Haverhill and across the region.

The hospital is still keen to hear from young people aged 16 and over interested in becoming a member of the new trust.

POLICE are warning families not to waste their cash this Christmas on mini motorbikes which could seriously hurt their children or be seized if ridden on the road. Haverhill officers have Haverhill officers have already seized the bikes, which cost up to £200, being ridden illegally on roads or public spaces.

Sixteen vehicles were found to have faults and prohibition notices were issued, meaning they cannot be driven again until fixed. Twenty-two drivers were shown the Fire Service DVD Learn and Live.

Sergeant Sarah Bartley of the Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team, said officers were "disappointed" by the results, adding: "One of the vehicles had a defective handbrake and another had a battery hanging on by wires - the vehicle examiner said if it been in a collision, it would have caught fire almost immediately.

"Most drivers were receptive and gained an understanding of how their vehicles could have a damaging effect on their lives and the lives of others."

Further action is planned to combat anti-social vehicle use, particularly noisy exhausts.

Region picked to trial bus ticket smartcards

BY Chris Havergal

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

BUS passengers will soon be able use a "smartcard" travel

It will soon be possible for Cambridgeshire customers to put pre-paid credit on their own card and "touch in" when they get on a bus, as with the Oyster card system which has been highly successful across London's transport network.

New machines fitted in Cambridge last weekend will be able to take the cards, and similar work will be carried out in Huntingdon this weekend.

Conventional tickets will still be

Passengers will be able to top up their account online, on the bus, by direct debit, or in travel centres, and although only multi-trip passes such as Stagecoach's Megarider will be available at first, a "pay-as-you-go" format could follow.

Stagecoach will carry out trials at the start of next year and introduce the scheme across the county when the guided busway opens – which is expected to be sometime in spring.

Andy Campbell, managing director of Stagecoach Cambridgeshire, said smartcards would make travel quicker and simpler.

He said: "The biggest benefit is the ease of using it. You can just keep the card and top it up as and when you use it. Hopefully you will be able to use direct debit, so you will have a 'bus pass for life'."

Pensioners will be able to have their free bus pass loaded onto a card.

Cambridgeshire has been selected as the first area outside London to trial smartcards on buses. An experiment for trains is being carried out in the South West of England.
Whippet Coaches, which mainly covers the Huntingdonshire area, has also been in touch with Cambridgeshire County Council about the Paul Nelson, the council's public transport manager, said: "We have been approached by bus operators who run buses throughout the county about introducing a smartcard ticket-ing service.

"We are really keen to bring these new initiatives to the county and will be working with operators in the next few months to see what we can do to make travelling on public transport in Cambridgeshire faster and easier.

22 per cent hike in jobless figures

THE number of people out of work in Cambridgeshire has risen sharply – with a 22 per cent increase in people claiming unemployment benefits in a year. Cambridgeshire County Council has confirmed that nearly 1,000 more people are claiming jobseekers allowance in the county than a year ago.

In October last year 4,451 people were claiming the benefit, but by last month that figure had soared to

The council also says its latest figures show that in the last three months four major Cambridgeshire employers have shed more than 250 jobs – bringing the total job losses to nearly 750 since April.

And figures released by the Government last week show the East of England snow the East of England has lost more than 5,000 jobs, and 140,000 people are out of work – about 4.8 per cent of the active workforce.

However, John Bridge, chief executive of Cambridgeshire Chambers of Commerce, says while the figures may seem alarming, he believes the area is weathering the credit crunch better than other parts of the UK.

Mr Bridge said: "Cam-

"There are lots of different economies in the county and in some parts, often in the city itself, employers are still strugg-ling to find employees of the right quality, although they are telling us they are getting more applications

"Clearly there are people being impacted by the downturn and there are pockets of severe difficulty, but there are new jobs coming what with Phillips and Kodak coming to the area with their research departments.

He said it was a challenging environment and he expected more unemployment in the coming months.

Cllr Jill Tuck, leader of the county council, said: "We believe that Cambridgeshire is potentially well placed to weather the economic storm, but we want to reassure the local community that we are doing everything we can to ensure the county's economy remains buoyant and

Charity walkers receive awards

THE wonderful walkers who helped raise a record-breaking £42,500 in this year's Bridge the Gap have been rewarded with prizes for their efforts.

Cheques have been presented to the charities benefiting from the walk: the appeal run by our sister paper, the Cambridge News, for a £1 million Teenage Cancer Trust (TCT) unit in Cambridge, the Arthur Rank Hospice and Press Relief, the Cambridge News' community fund.

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklvnews.co.uk

Those who raised the most in a number of sponsorship categories were presented with their awards by Prof Alison Richard, Cambridge University Vice-Chancellor, last Wednesday.

Christine Newman, of Eland Way, Cambridge, was the highest individual fundraiser with £300. She won a family ticket for Beauty and the Beast at Cambridge Corn Exchange, donated by Q103.

Luke Shackleton, 12, of Great Shelford, collected the most by a child, with £220, and won a bicycle donated by Falcon Cycles.

The team award was shared. Cambridge University Press, which collected £2,000, received the new Annual Corporate Trophy and a Dumbleton Photography voucher.

A group of walkers who call themselves the Sunflower Girls raised £753 and they celebrated with champagne.

Swaffham Bulbeck Primary School came top of the class in that section with £235. It won a £100 book token from the Cambridge University Press bookshop.

University Press bookshop. Andy Gough, chairman of Press Relief, said: "We are remarkably indebted to the generosity and enthusiasm of the scores of walkers and our band of sponsors who helped raised a phenomenal amount for local charities.

"I know what this will mean for Press Relief and for the countless local individuals and organisations we support through our charitable giving.

Prizes also went to artists inspired by the day's events. They produced drawings based on a selection from 20 words, including "craggy", "shiny" or "crumbly".

The winner in the undereight category was Lizzie Letheridge, of Littlebury. John Jagger, aged 11, of Cambridge, came first in the nine to 13 age group.

Emily Kenny-Troughton, aged 14, of Cambridge, topped the 14-18 group and the adult winner was Donna McLuskie, from Comberton.

When Ali Ives, busy mum of two small boys, spent all afternoon looking in town for a special gift for her friend's birthday and ended up going home with nothing she decided what the town needed was a gift shop.

She was already working part time in Bottom Drawer, the Lingerie shop in Queen Street, so it seemed only natural that the best place to start this venture would be at her work. Ali now has a section of the Lingerie shop where all her must have gifts are displayed beautifully.

Prices start from just £2.50 for a stocking filler book mark or compact mirrors which sit along nicely with a whole array of 'Little Princess' girls purses, 'Fairy dress-up' fridge magnets, trinket pots and money boxes. As she has two little boys she was keen that the boys in town weren't left out and specially ordered boys 'Knight' and 'Secret Code' wallets, pencil cases, console bags, writing sets and spy boxes.

There is also a cute chintz homewares range from 'Think Pink' so if you are looking for a groovy door stop or cool notice board then look no further. And when it comes to looking for that special gift for your mum, sister, wife or friend Ali's got it covered with frosted picture vases from only £8.00, trendy couple figurines, picture frames, jewellery boxes, candles, fairy lights and much more. All the prices are competitive and nothing is more than £12.00.

If you really want to spoil yourself or loved one why not invest in a designer bag from 'The Old Bag Company'. These beautifully coloured canvas bags are a perfect Christmas gift. There are several designs from grab bags to hobby and changing bags. All the bags are machine washable and are packed full of useful pockets and compartments so you'll never have to search for you mobile phone or keys again.

Ali is very careful not to re-order any of her stock so there is always something new to look at, so if you see something you like snap it up before someone else does!

Are you struggling to find that perfect gift?

Well look no further than Presence, you'll find us inside Bottom Drawer, Queen Street

Escape ghastly

HAVE you ever been wedged in between a wall and a flower pot at the office Christmas party, cornered into conversation by that greasy-haired and halitosis-spewing colleague from upstairs, the one who everyone else managed to avoid but who you were just too slow to get away from?

It's because of people like dismal Dan from IT, and spiteful Aunt Jean, and your annoying cousin Barbara, that Christmas – the one time of the year when peace, compassion and charity are meant to take precedence in our hearts – becomes a period when you pray for a nasty bug to wipe out every single person you can't stand.

to wipe out every single person you can't stand.
All too often Christmas means mingling with neighbours you actively detest, inviting hideously inconsiderate step-family around and sharing punch with that flirty and terminally grotesque co-worker.

But, never fear, help is at hand! There is no social situation, no matter how bleak, that you cannot be rescued from successfully. You just need to arm yourself with a

TAKING CHARGE

Instead of steeling your resolve for the painful weeks ahead, why not shake things up a bit? If you can't stand the thought of attending your sister's Boxing Day bash, mount a rebellion – don't go. But before you put your foot in it, you'll need some tips on how to go about this properly Exit Strategies For All Social Occasions. "That's all quite nice, but the real question is — could he have escaped from egg-nog-emboldened Tina in accounts who wanted a dance at the Christmas party?

David, a humorist and journalist based in San Francisco, reckons he's been through enough sticky social situations in his lifetime to write a whole book on avoiding them.

Ranging from tips on how to exit an orgy without disappointing the party host, to getting out of dull work assignments, David's done the dirty work of coming up with a thousand excuses to get you out of anything.

excuses to get you out of anything. While some of you might not feel as though you really need to "dodge the venomous fangs of interpersonal obligation", ask yourself if you'd rather replay last year's office party or neighbourhood cheese and wine party all over again this year. No? Then read on, dear rebel, read on.

HOW TO SURVIVE FAMILY GATHERINGS

"It's Christmas dinner, and once again it's time to face your relatives: bitter Uncle Ralph with his nasty political views; the dim cousins who keep "You're tied up doing media interviews and talk shows, but you'll

THE OFFICE CHRISTMAS PARTY

The drinks are watery, the dip runny, the music dreadful – it must be the Christmas party. You didn't want to go, but now you're there and it's interminable. So what do you do to get out of its many ordeals?

You're stuck in a corner talking to a bore. "Snag a passer-by and say, 'Hi Chris! [Insert bore's name here] is telling me all about post-surgical sponge baths, didn't you have to do that?" advises David. IT won't be long before it is time to go shopping for a Christmas tree so it's worth thinking about what type of tree you are going to buy.

The most popular, the Nordmann fir, is likely to be more expensive than in previous years, growers are warning.

About 8.5 million trees are sold in this country every Christmas, of which half are Nordmann firs.

Imports of the popular tree, which is grown in Denmark, have dropped because a ruling by the European Union to scrap subsidies has put many growers out of business.

"Last year the Danes had reduced the numbers of Nordmanns (Abiesnordmanniana) they were number of big wholesalers and garden

Roger Hay, secretary of the British Christmas

"Numbers of Nordmanns imported from Denmark has fallen from 1.5 million last year to 500,000 this year. We grow them increasingly over here but they take about 10 years to grow to a saleable size. Expect to pay between £30 and £40 for

Follow these tips to buying and maintaining the perfect Christmas tree:

Cut trees should be fresh when purchased. The needles should not be dull and dried up and the branches should not be brittle. The outer needles should not fall off if the tree is gently shaken.

After you have bought your tree it should be kept outside in a cool shaded place,

• Keep the container topped up with water – an average tree can drink a pint a day. Don't stand it near a radiator, or it may dry out.

■ If you want to grow your tree on, invest in a bare-root or container-grown tree with its roots growing in the pot, slowly acclimatise it to the open by putting it in a sheltered spot initially, before planting in its final

Christmas shoppers urged to avoid 'sharks'

SHOPPERS under pressure from the credit crunch are being warned not to get bitten by loan sharks just to pay for Christmas.

As part of National Consumer Week, Suffolk Trading Standards has issued the warning, together with Citizens Advice, and the Birmingham Illegal Money Lending Team. Experts from the Government-funded Illegal Money Lending Team say they expect to see an increase in people borrowing cash illegally in the run up to Christmas due to the economic crisis.

The Birmingham team was set up in 2004 as a pilot project to search out and prosecute illegal money lenders. It has since wiped out more than £7.5 million of illegal debt owed by some of society's BY Jo Deeks poorest people, helped more than 6,000 victims, and secured prison sentences totalling 33 years for illegal money lending. Cllr Joanna Spicer, Suffolk County Council's Portfolio Holder for Public Protection, said: "Many people find them selves under pressure at this time of year to spend more than they have. This year particularly, many will find themselves falling into financial difficulty and may not be able to see a way out.

"The credit crunch is hitting many people in a number of ways and Suffolk County Council along with its partners will be coming together in December to decide how best we can help those feeling the pinch.

"In the meantime, through-out National Consumer Week

this year Suffolk Trading Standards will deliver a number of free workshops in which people can come along and speak to a member of staff, in confidence, and gain money saving tips and advice about budgeting for the festive season and beyond.

"We want to make sure those who may need extra money this year get help the right way and are not turning to loan sharks."

A free workshop will be held tomorrow from 9.30am-12.30pm at the Burton Centre Haverhill. To book a place, call 0845 603

FIREFIGHTING heroes of the past are being invited to join in cele-brations for Suffolk Fire and Rescue's 60th anniversary.

Event organisers want to hear from full time or retained fire-fighters who served from 1948 to today, and those who remember the 1953 flood, Corder's fire of 1966, the great storm of 1987, or the Center Parcs blaze.

The service plans to honour former colleagues from the early days of the service as part of the annual public protection awards on December 17 at the Athenaeum, Bury St Edmunds.

The current chief fire officer for Suffolk, Lee Howell, said: "We are very keen to recognise our heroes in Suffolk who may no longer work with us but certainly are not forgotten. Whilst the fire service has changed significantly in recent years, the dedication of our front-line staff to protect the public remains as strong today as it was 60 years ago.'

Suffolk County Council's portfolio holder for public protection, Cllr Joanna Spicer, added: "We want to encourage former members of the fire service to contact us so we can ensure as many people as possible are invited to celebrate our achievements over the last 60 years.

"The council is very proud of our fire and rescue service and we want to mark the occasion with a fitting tribute."

One woman, two battles for the throne

■ SOLO EFFORT . . . Miriam Cooper stars in Sister Queens,

THE turn of events in the 16th Century that lead to the execution of Mary Queen of Scots unfolds in a thrilling one-woman show, Sister Queens, at Haverhill Arts Centre on Thursday, November 27. With actor and writer Miriam Cooper playing both Elizabeth I and Mary Queen of Scots, the audience will enter the prison and the royal court private chambers and public processions and may even be accused of being spies as they journey with the sister queens in their battle for the throne. In a remarkable performance, Cooper, who worked with on the development of the play, gets under the skin of both The Virgin Queen and The Catholic Whore to show the real women beneath the crowns. Their fight for the throne takes audiences through the passions of one of the most cut-throat periods in English history.

Presented by Play on Words Theatre and the European Arts Company, the show starts at 7.30pm. Tickets are £9, £7.50 for concessions and £6 for under 18s, available from the centre's box office on (01440)

Spring's here thanks to Sport!

SINCE the clocks went back I've been in a permanent state of sleepiness.

Toying with the idea that I could be tired because I sleep too much I started going to bed later, but after a week of feeling equally as tired I have reverted back to my old routine and continue living in a winter-induced slumber.

But one particularly frosty morning last week as I scraped clear the window to the blushing Suzuki Swift Sport, the thought of driving the Japanese company's latest hot hatch certainly put a spring into my step.

Until 2005 when the newly styled
Swift came out the model was generally considered an affordable motoring option with a cheap and cheerful price tag. Its design was neat, yet maybe a little dated, but it was an affordable runaround.

The current Swift Sport however is in a whole different league. At £11.915 it is one of the more affordable hot hatches on the market, and it is very fun to drive, making it much more then just a reliable runaround. Even with the icy temperature the 1.6-litre engine sprung to life and purred like a contented cat. The capable engine is competent but needs encouragement to reach its capability of 0-60mph in just under nine seconds.

The Swift's stiff suspension makes for a slightly hard ride but with a top speed of 124mph and 123bhp, it has plenty to give. The engine is responsive, particularly in the lower gears and the fivespeed gearbox gives short, accurate changes. The Swift is great in town where the optional parking sensors make fitting into small spaces easy and its eager nature allows you to nip freely in and out of traffic. Suzuki has obviously taken some style advice from the Mini Cooper –

a bit like a little sister looking up to her older sibling for fashion and make-up tips. But instead of making the younger sister mistakes and applying a bit too much of the wrong shade foundation, the Swift's styling is

Instead of the square lines seen on the earlier models it has curves in all the right places, making it look more cheerful than its harsh predecessor. The twin-exhaust and spoiler confirm its sports car credentials, as do the sparkling, 17-inch wheels and its low positioning.
Inside is attractive too. Firstly there are those two deep-bucket seats in the front, which are extremely comfortable and, despite being large, still leave enough space in the two rear seats for back seat passengers to be contented too. There's plenty of headroom too!

The steering wheel is quite large and thick which makes for a steady drive, especially in the corners, and the minimal interior is brought to life with racy red stitching on the steering wheel and doors. The indicators are solid and the digital heating is effective, making it all the more comfortable.

As one of the lower priced superminis on the market the Swift has a high retained value of 39 per cent impressive in comparison with the Nissan Micra 1.6 (33 per cent), the Citroen C2 1.6i VTR (32 per cent) and the Colt 1.5 CZT (30 per cent). However the Mini One is still the cream of the crop in terms of holding its price with a staggering 62 per cent retained value on the 1.4 version and just a £10 higher price tag then the Swift at £11,925.

Basically

The Suzuki Swift is a fun, stylish fuss-free hot hatch, which will wake you up on the sleepiest of

The home of quality used motors

IF YOU are looking to purchase a car and have opted to go down the used car route there are few dealerships that can offer a better selection of low mileage vehicles than Steve Goldsmith Cars.

Steve Goldsmith first

Steve Goldsmith first established his business in 1977 by opening a dealership in Essex. He relocated to Linton in Cambridgeshire ten years ago, and today Steve runs the company with his son John who has been employed within the business for the past ten years having worked his way up the ranks to management level.

There are three more members of the team at Russell Boughtwood is the most recent member of the team having joined at the beginning of November. His enthusiasm for cars means that he is the ideal pregruit that he is the ideal recruit.

Over the years Steve Goldsmith Cars have gained an enviable reputation not only for the quality of their cars but for their attention to detail while giving their friendly customer care. This continues to bring more and more motorists to the dealership, and this success has enabled Steve and John to open a new dealership by purchasing a long-established garage in the village of Sible Hedingham in Essex on November 1 this year.

This exciting new development for their company increases the opportunities to meet new customers. Now more people are aware of the fine quality of the cars and highly competitive prices offered by Steve Goldsmith Cars where every vehicle is personally guaranteed in writing after sale. And, as a result of Steve and John's diligence and experience, you will be purchasing the very best car that your hard earned money can buy.

You'll find a mix of around 80 used cars in an undercover display area at Linton, and they handpick all cars in order to maintain the quality of the stock and only the finest quality, low mileage vehicles are purchased. Before offering them for sale a great deal of preparation work is performed on each and every vehicle. The predelivery checklist includes a safety check, service and if required, an MOT. A thorough valet is then carried out so that cars are presented in the best possible condition.

■ STEVE GOLDSMITH CARS . . . a considerable amount of work goes into each vehicle before it goes on sale.

Steve Goldsmith Cars have long established links with most of the major finance houses which enables them to provide finance packages that can be tailored to meet your requirements. If you would prefer to purchase by using your own funds they accept building society cheques, most major credit and debit cards and good old fashioned cash. Part

Small cars with big recommendation

usually enjoy very low depreciation, and they remain popular with all age groups, says buy advice website UsedCarExpert.co.u

And in the current climate, its editor Matt Tumbridge says dealers seem to be recognising that people will only buy smaller cars, and then if priced attractively.

attractively.
"This presents a real opportunity for car owners," Tumbridge says. "As Used Car Expert prices show, older small cars are still holding value will holding value well, because many are private sales.

"So, if you buy a nearly-new one cheaply, and sell it in a couple of years when things are better on the economic front, you stand to have some of the cheapest motoring of your life." Here are three to think about, recommended by Tumbridge:

■ Vauxhall Corsa: "One of the best-looking small cars on the market, it has excellent build quality, plus a huge variety of specifications and equipment," states Tumbridge.

Most economical variant is the 1.3 CDTi, and best used buy is the 1.2 16-valve Design.

UsedCarExpert.co.uk lists 14 pre-buy checks, and prices a 2006 Vauxhall Corsa 1.2 with 17,000 average miles at between £4,800 and £5,700 – meaning it has dropped around 33 per cent in price over the last year.

■ Mitsubishi Colt: "These are well-built and utterly reliable," says Tum-bridge. "Expensive when new, they are great value used. They are also very attractive, fairly rare and gadget-laden."

Most economical model is the 1.6 Mirage, and best used buy is the lists just 8 fault checks online, and prices a 2006 Mitsubishi Colt 1.5D with 19,000 average miles at around £6,275 to £7,100 – a 26 per cent price drop over the last 12 months.

■ Ford Fiesta: "The Fiesta has always been good to drive, but the later model was usefully larger," Tumbridge says. "Depreciation is steep, which is good for used buyers, and there are always plenty to choose from."

Most economical version is the 1.4 TDCi, and best used buy is the 1.3.16-valve

UsedCarExpert.co.uk has listed 11 faults to check for, and prices a 2004 Ford Fiesta 1.3 16v with 29,250 average miles from £3 600 to £4 300 - a 24 per cent drop in value over the last year.

YOUTH FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

St Ives U16 2 Haverhill Rovers U16 2

CAMBRIDGE & DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE,

ROVERS were made to pay for missed chances as they dropped two points in a match they should really have won with ease.

St Ives kicked off, but it was Rovers who went into attack, with the wind and the slope behind them.

Their midfield of Bavester, Edwards, Ashcroft and Merritt looked confident when they attacked.

It was not long before Bavester was sending in testing long-range shots and, with 10 minutes gone, one 25 yard effort gave the St Ives' keeper no chance.

The home side pushed hard, but the Rovers' defence of, Wyatt, Benjamin, Goff, Farrant and Rogers had things under control under control.

Ashcroft got on the end of a through ball and made no mistake with a perfect finish to put Rovers 2-0 up. In the second half, Rovers continued to attack, but for some good saves from the home keeper could have extended their advantage.

St Ives, to their credit, kept pushing and pulled one back with a header that beat Rovers' keeper Sweeney at the near Rovers where still in control but gave away an unnecessary free kick on the edge of the box, which St Ives finished well to grab a point.

Grampian Gunners U15 0 Priory Parkside U15 1

CAMBRIDGE & DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE.

GRAMPIAN went down by the only goal of the game at a very wet sports ground on Sunday.

It was testament to the new groundstaff that that they got the pitch in tremendous condition for the match.

The only goal came midway through the first half and was completly against the run of play after the home side failed to deal with a corner.

Gunners' leading scorer

Luke Halls had several opportunities to equalise, but it just did not fall for the Gunners.

An outstanding display by Sam Newton gave him the man-of-the-match accolade, but, as well as Grampian played, they could not get anything out of the game.

Grampian manager Simon Youngs said: "We were 100 per cent better than the previous week and should have had at least a point.

"However, this is a tough league and you have to take

CAMBRIDGE & DISTRICT COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 12D WRATTING marched on with this fine win, knowing that league leaders Haslingfield were within catching

With Godmanchester firmly rooted at the foot of the table, Wratting knew that, although goals were needed, focus was also required

Wratting again provided a polished football performance and won well.

There were hat-tricks for Lambert and Bailey, Bush and Ager grabbed a brace each, while Gedny, Cooper, Stevenson, Torode and man-of-thematch Elliott rounded off the scoring in emphatic style.

Good solid defending from Sheath, Scotton, Massie and Payne was coupled with fine contributions from Foster and Ankers, while goalkeeper Millar remaind focused to keep a successive clean sheet.

Great respect was due to Godmanchester, whose players never gave up and battled well to the end.

Grampian Gunners U10 A 3 Linton Aztecs U10 B 1

CAMBS MINI LEAGUE, DIVISION 10A

AFTER Aztecs waltzed through from the kick-off to score in 15 seconds, Gunners knew they were in a match and started to play some football. Fletcher, Woodley and Webb all missed good chances as it looked unlikely that Grampian would score before half time.

However, Thompson slotted home to make it 1-1 at the break.

As in the first half, Gunners lost concentration from the kick-off and only a great save by Jones kept the scores level.

After this, Gunners started to create some good chances, and Grace shot home to give them 2-1 lead.

By now Gunners were playing some good football, with Farrow and Beeston solid at the back and Robson creating chances.

Gunners scored again through Thompson to complete a 3-1 victory that could have been more, but for a great display by the Aztecs' keeper.

GUNNERS started well and Aztecs goalkeeper Ben Linsdell was kept busy in the early stages.

FOOTBALL: LATEST NEWS FROM HAMLET CROFT

Rovers pick up valuable points

ROARED on by a crowd of more than 300, Rovers notched up a vital victory 3-1 victory over Woodbridge Town at Hamlet Croft Saturday to boost their battle to pull away from the foot of the Ridgeons League. Premier Division table.

Ryan Kent set out Rovers intentions with a fine shot that was turned over the bar after three minutes.

But the opening goal was not long coming when Harry Halls followed up to net on six minutes after Martin Westcott's shot had been blocked by the keeper.

Rovers had the better of the first half and, after 15 minutes, a pass by Sam Holmes slipped under a Woodbridge defender's foot to leave Westcott one-on-one with the goalkeeper, but his effort was too close to the custodian.

Neil Cogger, under challenge from the keeper, also saw his effort go just wide of the visitors' goal.

Haverhill had to wait until the 40th minute before increasing their advantage, when Westcott beat the offside trap to get in ahead of the keeper and slot the ball home.

After the break, Westcott twice saw efforts cleared off the line by the same defender, before Woodbridge reduced the arrears with a near-post tap-in

But Westcott had the final say when he powerfully headed home at the near post from a Cogger corner after 73 minutes.

The victory brought a valuable three points for Rovers, a result that was tempered only by the news that fellow Harwich & Parkeston had also won, 3-Wisbech Town. 3-0 away to

Rovers' caretaker manager Neil Farlie and his team will be looking to build on the Woodbridge result when they travel to Felixstowe & Walton United for a league match on Saturday

Felixstowe are also firmly in the bottom half of the table with 15 points from 16 matches and the game is one that Rovers really need to win if they are to pull themselves out of trouble.

Applications closed this week for the managerial vacancy at Hamlet Croft.

Caretaker boss Farlie has indicated that he would be willing to take on the job permanently, providing he has assistance

Interviews for the post have been scheduled for Monday.

Plumridge penalty the only reward

JAKE Plumridge's early penalty was the only consolation for Haverhill as they went down 26-3 at Swaffham in Eastern Counties Two on Saturday. Skipper Paul Bergin said: "We didn't do anything particularly wrong, but we didn't do things fast enough or aggressive enough.

"Their rucking was outstanding and they quite surprised us. We couldn't turn our pressure into points. In the second half we were on their line for long spells but couldn't get over." He added: "They were just a bit better all round."

■ Although Haverhill's youth team ran in six tries to beat a determined Stowmarket side 36-10 on Sunday, it was really a scoreline that flattered them.

In early exchanges, both sides scored tries after periods of pressure, with Haverhill's coming from No 8 Dom Famell, who continued his record of scoring in every match played.
